The accident occurred at around 12:22 a.m. Thursday at a level crossing in Shizuoka Prefecture, according to the police. Seven people aboard the train died, while one person suffered minor injuries. They were all believed to be using the regular route. The truck driver's whereabouts were unknown, and he was presumed to have died. The train, which was running in an express service, reportedly left its tracks on a bridge carrying it over the toll gate for the crossing. The driver was reportedly unhurt. The train broke through two wooden railings at the crossing and smashed into the truck, sending the vehicle hurtling across the tracks. The truck was reportedly hit by the train, but it was unclear how much it moved. The truck crashed through the glass-wall building of a convenience store on the same stretch of road where the accident occurred, injuring one person inside.Vic Axelson Victor Frederick Axelson (born June 23, 1921) is a former American football coach and player.
