KeyMACRO is an advanced Windows Macro Manager for Internet Explorer and Mozilla Firefox. The program enables you to easily and quickly create keystroke shortcuts for web pages on Internet Explorer and Mozilla Firefox. The program also features a full-featured keyboard shortcut manager that allows you to capture any hotkey and associate it with any browser windows. KEYMACRO provides the ability to use a single macro for all websites, including searching and bookmarking. You can bookmark your favorite web pages, which can then be easily accessed through the Quick Launch bar or by using a keyboard shortcut. KEYMACRO gives you the ability to use macros that capture the hotkey associated with any webpage, such as entering or exiting a website, or to use hotkeys to perform operations on selected elements on a webpage. KEYMACRO can also perform some of the more difficult or tedious tasks for you, such as highlighting text, searching webpages, copying text, bookmarking webpages, copying web addresses, launching web browsers, visiting websites, installing new extensions, and even saving pictures to a specified location. All of these features and more can be accessed by performing keystrokes using the Keyboard Shortcut Managers feature. You can use any hotkey combination or keyboard shortcut you want, including system shortcuts for Windows and most standard applications. More than just a keyboard shortcut manager, the Keyboard Shortcut Manager feature provides a number of enhancements. When you capture a hotkey, KEYMACRO will search for that hotkey, but if it does not exist, it will ask you to enter one. This allows you to easily capture hotkeys and associate them with other browser windows. You can also easily duplicate hotkeys, and you can assign macros to hotkeys, which can also be easily duplicated. The Keyboard Shortcut Manager feature also allows you to set global hotkeys for all websites, which will be used whenever you launch any web browser. This eliminates the need to setup global hotkeys for each and every web browser. KeyMACRO allows you to assign keystrokes to the Windows Start Menu, enabling you to easily access web shortcuts by performing a single keystroke. This can be very useful if you want to launch a particular website quickly. KEYMACRO also offers a wide range of extra features, including: * Macro Recorder - allows you to record any keystroke sequence and then quickly replay it, even after the program has been closed. * Global Hotkeys - assign global hotkeys for any website. * Web Brows 77a5ca646e
