statement of policy. In addition, the U.S. Forest Service in its Environmental Assessment of the Fence in Frying Pan Lake, also relied upon in the EAB's May 1999 statement of policy, states that "[t]he purpose of this Fence is to prevent access to the lake... to reduce the potential for human/wildlife conflict."

[Northwestern Forest Pass State Forest, EA at 29.] {12} This Court's conclusions that state and federal policy support temporary closures to protect public health and safety and the environment is also supported by reference to the Antideficiency Act. Although the Act appears to prohibit federal agencies from making expenditures that exceed the amount of funds appropriated for the current fiscal year, it is not clear that it prohibits the temporary use of funds or expenditures by administrative action. See 31 U.S.C. § 1341; Fed. Crop Ins. v. Merrill, 332 U.S. 380, 384, 68 S.Ct. 1, 92 L.Ed. 10 (1947) ("The most fundamental and general provision of the Antideficiency Act is contained in § 1341. It is there that the Congress set forth the general prohibition and defined the individual who must observe it"). {13} Pursuant to the test and principles articulated in New Mexico and the pertinent federal law and regulations, we must was once the home to a family of five. However, the house is under my control now, and I couldn't be happier. I have a big living room with a computer desk in the corner, and half of a bedroom in back. The living room has three bedrooms in it, a full bathroom, and a laundry room. The basement has a large washer and dryer and two bedrooms in there as well, with two more bedrooms upstairs. My friends love coming over to my house because the basement is so big, there's always something to do. C-
