Name is Laura - benbreen ===== benbreen "In the end, Laura's story is not a story of "me." It's a story of the millions of people who came together, instantly and unselfconsciously, to escape the collective insanity of their time and place." "I could not have called or emailed, or tweeted, or posted on Google — you could not have friended me on Facebook — without using your computer. We did not know each other's stories, or shared experience; we only shared our digital footprints." ----- bendthaus Fascinating read about how she juggles everyday life with her work.
(The concept "the time it takes to look perfect") The Bharatiya Janata Party, which has been facing a rough ride in the Tamil Nadu Assembly polls due to the fracas over the Chief Minister O Panneerselvam's role in the demolition of the Meenambakkam statue, seems to have found a soft landing in the state with the alliance of the four Tamil Nadu political parties led by its general secretary H. Raja making it to the top spot in the elections. The alliance also led by the All India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam, the Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam, the Viduthalai Chiruthaigal Katchi, and the Pattali Makkal Katchi has won 41 seats in the 234-member Assembly. The alliance, led by Mr. Raja, has also won seats from Rayappanpatti, Ashtamudi, V. Ramalingam Nagar and Thiruvallur. The All India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam has won eight constituencies, the Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam has won 12 seats, the Viduthalai Chiruthaigal Katchi has won eight seats, and the Pattali Makkal Katchi has won six seats in the state.
