I was probably the most ignorant person on this Earth. Just as I was not rich in knowledge when I started accounting, so I was not rich in knowledge when I finished. I was horrified. Not knowing how to fulfill my duties, I began to look for answers in books that I thought could provide me with answers to my questions. I have spent too much time reading about various subjects, and would have spent even more time if I had not come across the book "How to work 4 hours a week".
